Amazing Graces

"East is East and West is West and never the twain shall meet"—except at The Inn of the Five Graces in Santa Fe, New Mexico (150 East DeVargas Street). Here, elements of Southwestern style—adobe walls, exposed beams and rough-hewn furniture—blend with the rich, warm hues of Oriental rugs and pillows and hand-painted tile that recall Tales From the Arabian Nights. As if the décor doesn't provide enough stimulus, the inn offers a Five Senses package that includes a shoot under the tutelage of a professional photographer, cooking lessons with a chef or a private concert from a local musician. Rates from $295. Info: 505-992-0957 or www.fivegraces.com.
