

MIX & MATCH: CLASSIC + COZY + CONTEMPORARY

NEW MEXICO

APRIL 2009

M A G A Z I N E

Special Issue

HOME

Go Wild!
101 TIPS & TRICKS

Hobbit at Heart?
QUIZ: FIND YOUR DREAM HOUSE

High & Dry:
GARDENING FOR 3 ZONES

Hooked on
FISH TACOS

BURNING DESIRE: In New Mexico, fireplaces aren't just for the living room. Different takes on perhaps the oldest of home heating systems are this tiered kiva fireplace in the boudoir (below), a shepherd's fireplace in the sitting room (opposite, top), a tub-side fireplace (opposite, left), and a juicy-pink, free-standing fireplace in the kitchen.

Classic New Mexico architecture such as carved beams and a kiva fireplace are accented by exotic fabrics at Santa Fe's Inn of the Five Graces, with decor by Eastern importers Seret & Sons.

Must have: aromatic New Mexico piñon wood